Issue # 6

Issue: Update Policy in Chapter 205 of DTR:

- Clarify CONUS & OCONUS responsibilities (Combatant Commanders' concerns include: Demil Shipments, Force Protection, Host Nation limited resources, contractual enforcement, ITV, satellite tracking).
- Host Nation sovereignty, especially in security, may take precedence over the DTR requirements. Host Nation agreements must be complied with.
- Sealift AA&E policy not covered comprehensively in DTR.

UNCLASSIFIED

Issue #6 (con't)

- Course Of Action: Develop, Staff and Implement Policy Change.

Proposed Language:

- 204/Para A: For Geographic Combatant Commanders, Host Nation agreements, requirements, and restrictions may take precedence over this regulation while in that geographic location. If that occurs, ensure safety, security, and accountability of movement is paramount and the spirit of this regulation is followed to the best of the command's ability.
- 205/Para A: Host Nation sovereignty, especially in security, may take precedence over the DTR requirements. Host Nation agreements must be complied with.
